ACTS Information

ACTS will rotate locations both East (even years) and West (odd years) of the Mississippi River. BOG members will be given preferential consideration when selecting the location and the hosting organization will be provided a free booth to assist in driving membership. The NAA Board of Directors will select the 2019 and 2020 locations this fall. Applications for future ACTS will be accepted at the annual spring conference.

The BOG will host the State Leadership Forum and Workshop on the day preceding the conference which will be free to attend and open to ALL appraisers. Any state appraisal organization or coalition who sends a representative from their leadership to participate will be recognized as a sponsor of this event and included in the program.

BOG Members will receive a discount code for their general membership to attend ACTS.
