Dear Ben Maxwell:

The following courses have been certified for appraiser education credit. These numbers should be used on all forms of correspondence with the Division.

Course No.: AC190113

Course Title: 2019 APPRAISERS CONFERENCE AND TRADE SHOW (ACTS) DAY 1

CE Hrs: 7

The expiration date for these courses is January 31, 2021. Unless your certification is discontinued for violation of the continuing education statutes and rules, you will be sent a renewal notice for the courses about six weeks before the expiration date. You may apply for recertification of your courses at that time.

This approval is subject to your maintaining your approval through the AQB and IDECC approval programs. You are required to notify us of any expiration, revocation or any other modification to the IDECC or AQB certification during the approved period of time.

Enclosed are the master certificates for these courses. Please keep the original certificates in a safe place. In order to discourage forgery or counterfeit certificates, please sign the certificates in blue ink, you may use a signature stamp for large classes.

You may create your own certificate for your course. However, if you elect to do this, your own certificate must contain ALL of the information that is required and included in the Division Continuing Education Certification enclosed.

The course provider is also responsible for the following critical aspects of the law, the violation of which could result in decertification of your course:

1. A certificate of attendance should be issued only to those students who attend a minimum of 90 percent of the required class time. You must start and end your classes promptly in order to substantiate what constitutes the 90 percent period. Unannounced monitors will randomly be auditing your classes to observe compliance with this and other rules. As an approved provider, you agree to use either our master certificate, or one developed on your own based on the guidelines outlined above.
